Outline

In the event that your Credit Provider decides to obtain lenders mortgage insurance (LMI) on your loan, Genworth will obtain information about you from the Credit Provider and Genworth might also share some of your personal information with the Credit Provider, Credit Reporting bodies and others.

The purpose for which Genworth collects the personal information

Genworth may use your information:

- to decide whether to insure a Credit Provider under an LMI policy;
- to assess the risk of you defaulting on your obligations to a Credit Provider;
- to assess the risk of a guarantor being unable to meet a liability arising under a guarantee;
- to administer and vary the insurance cover including for securitisation and hardship applications;
- to verify information that the Credit Provider collects about you;
- to deal with claims and recovery of proceeds including, among other things, to enforce a loan in place of a lender if the LMI insurer pays out an insurance claim on your loan;
- for a mortgage insurance purpose relating to you; and
- for any other purpose under the insurance policy Genworth issues to the Credit Provider relating to your loan.

What if you do not wish to provide your Credit Provider with information?

If you don't provide your information to the Credit Provider it will not be possible for Genworth to process a Credit Provider's request for LMI.

Providing your information to other entities

Where permitted by the Privacy Act, Genworth may disclose information about you to third parties, in relation to any mortgage insurance policy relating to your loan. Those third parties may include:

- valuers, other insurers, re-insurers, claim assessors and investigators;
- brokers or referrers that submitted applications on your behalf or referred you to the mortgage manager;
- other financial institutions;
- organisations that are involved in debt collecting or in purchasing debts;
- organisations such as fraud reporting agencies, that may identify, investigate and/or prevent fraud, suspected fraud, crimes, suspected crimes, or other serious misconduct;
- organisations involved in surveying or registering a security property or which otherwise have an interest in a security property;
- Government or regulatory bodies (including ASIC and the Australian Tax Office) as required or authorised by law. In some instances, these bodies may share the information with relevant foreign authorities;
- rating agencies to the extent necessary to allow the rating agency to rate particular investments;
- organisations involved in securitising your loan, including re-insurers and underwriters, loan servicers, trust managers, trustees and security trustees;
- guarantors and prospective guarantors of your loan;
- payment system operators to allow an information collector to investigate or correct payments on your loan; and

- service providers (including data consultants and IT contractors), agents, contractors and advisers that assist the information collector to conduct its business.

Genworth's Privacy & Credit Reporting Policy

Genworth handles information about you in accordance with its privacy & credit reporting policy set out at <http://www.genworth.com.au/privacy-policy>

This includes:

- how you can access and correct your information that Genworth holds;
- how you can make a complaint if you have concerns about how Genworth manages your information; and
- how Genworth will deal with complaints.

Whether Genworth is likely to disclose the personal information to overseas recipients

Where permitted by the Privacy Act, Genworth may disclose your personal information to organisations overseas including its related companies (including USA, Canada or the United Kingdom), reinsurers, service providers, (including but not limited to data consultants and IT Contractors), its agents, contractors and external advisers and government and other regulatory bodies.

Overseas organisations may be required to disclose information shared with them under a foreign law. In those instances, Genworth will not be responsible for that disclosure.

Credit Reporting Information

Genworth can obtain information about you from a credit reporting body to enable it to decide whether to insure a Credit Provider under an LMI policy or assess the risk of default by you or a guarantor, for a mortgage insurance purpose relating to you and for any other purpose under the insurance policy Genworth issues to the Credit Provider relating to your loan.

Storage of your information

Genworth may store your information in cloud or other types of networked or electronic storage and will take reasonable steps to ensure appropriate security arrangements are in place in relation to this storage.

As electronic or networked storage can be accessed from various countries via an internet connection, it's not always practicable to know in which country your information may be accessed or held
